VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood and Gives Strength.

Du Quoin, Ill., Jan. 21, 1878.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—Your "Vegetine" has been doing wonders for me. Have been having Chills and Fever, contracted in the swamps of the South, nothing giving me relief until I began the use of your Vegetine, it giving me immediate relief, toning up my system, purifying my blood, giving strength; whereas all other medicine weakened me, and filled my system with poison; and I am satisfied that if families that live in the ague districts of the South and West would take Vegetine two or three times a week, they would not be troubled with the "Chills" or the malignant Fevers that prevail at certain times of the year, save doctors' bills, and live to a good old age. Respectfully yours,

J. E. MITCHELL,
Agent Henderson's Looms, St. Louis, Mo.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain, cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE

Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo.

CAIRO, ILL., Jan. 23, 1878.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have used several bottles of Vegetine; it has entirely cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint. It is the best medicine for kidney complaint. I would recommend it as a good blood purifier.

N. YOCUM.

PAIN AND DISEASE.—Can we expect to enjoy good health when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease; and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints? Remove the cause by taking VEGETINE, the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

VEGETINE.

I Believe it to be a Good Medicine.

XENIA, O., March 1, 1877.

MR. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I wish to inform you what your Vegetine has done for me. I have been afflicted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of the Vegetine was entirely relieved. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine.

Yours truly, FRED HAVERSTICK.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

VEGETINE.

Druggist's Report.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—We have been selling your "Vegetine" for the past eighteen months, and we take pleasure in stating that in every case, to our knowledge, it has given great satisfaction. Respectfully,

Hickman, Ky.

YELLOW FEVER.

IN NEW ORLEANS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.

Specials report that at New Orleans the climax of the fever, it is believed, was reached Wednesday, which was the 58th day of the epidemic, thus upholding the theory of periodicity. In 1867, the climax was reached on the 55th day, and in 1758 on the 56th day.

NEW CASES.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.

Weather clear and warmer. The Howard Association new cases, 20; the Young Men's Christian Association, 59.

FEVER ABATING.

GRENADA, Sept. 15.

There were two deaths today, and two new cases. The fever is abating, and we may soon look for a more cheerful condition of affairs.

A DECLINE AT VICKSBURG.

VICKSBURG, Sept. 15.

It is clear and warm; thermometer 90°. Physicians think there is a steady decline in new cases, but fears are entertained if very warm weather returns the fever will again increase. Eighteen deaths occured today.

AT GRAND JUNCTION, TENN.

GRAND JUNCTION, Sept. 15.

There are twelve new cases of fever, and nine deaths since yesterday. Two patients are now dying. The last three telegraph operators are very low and are not expected to live.

CASES IN AND AROUND CAIRO.

CAIRO, Sept. 15.

A boy from Kentucky, who came here sick Wednesday, died to-day with symptoms of yellow fever. Five employés of the Bulletin office were taken sick Friday, and are very low.

A FEVER STRICKEN MAN DESERTED ON THE RAILROAD, EN ROUTE TO CHATTANOOGA.

A man named Williams, of Ohio, who recently went to Memphis to join the Howards, was taken with fever Thursday, while on the train en route for Chattanooga. He was quickly placed in a box car and switched off a quarter of a mile from Stevenson, Ala. The doctors, negroes and everybody refused to go near him, excepting a hotel clerk named Matthews. Dr. Barr has left Chattanooga to attend him. Doctors from Tullahoma and Nashville also volunteered to assist him.

MEMPHIS.—PROMINENT MEN DEAD.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 15.

Ninety deaths are reported today. It is believed that many occurred in the suburbs which were not reported, for the reason that the undertakers would not go beyond the city limits, and though they sell coffins for interments do not report them. Among today's dead was Major William Willis, Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, an active worker among the sick and destitute; John G. Lonsdale, Jr., treasurer of the citizens' relief committee; Edward Foster, of the Howard Association; R. W. Blew, publisher of the Western Methodist, and his wife and child. Another child is dying. Of the twenty-four original Howards only six are on their feet, the rest being dead or sick. Twenty-six physicians report 174 new cases for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 P. M., against 231 yesterday.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

What Secretary Sherman Says About It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.

Secretary Sherman said this morning that he has nothing to add, in explanation of his latest Treasury circular with respect to the silver dollars, to what it contained in the circular itself. There had been, he said,

DOUBTS RAISED BY SOME PERSONS

as to the technical right of the Treasury Department to exchange silver for greenbacks. For himself, he had always held the opinion that the power to disburse the standard legal-tender silver dollars implied the power also to exchange them. Attorney-General Devens himself was not very clear upon that point, but, the doubt having been raised, it was decided to interpret the law in favor of the doubt.

The department will now, Mr. Sherman says, pay out the silver in regular disbursements, but it will not deviate from its rule of not forcing it upon

THE CREDITORS OF THE GOVERNMENT.

It can be paid out for salaries, for pensions and for current obligations. Mr. Sherman said he thought a great many of the dollars would go out for customs, and had no doubt of his right to use them in payment of any obligations of the government, as they are a full legal tender.

It is evident that the order of Saturday was reluctantly rescinded, and that the Treasury authorities are not satisfied with an act which renders them and to the charge of having no staple policy. It is intimated that the circular of last Saturday did not meet the approval of the President, but this is only a rumor, which is not verified by competent authority.

SO LIABLE TO CRITICISM,

INDIGNATION OF BANKERS.

Very indignant despatches have been received here today from bankers in New York and elsewhere, relative to the latest silver circular of Secretary Sherman. It appears that many of these bankers have made arrangements for the purchase of large quantities of four per centum bonds on the basis of the silver order of September 7, which would enable them to purchase the bonds with greenbacks. The change in the order of course interferes with this plan, and will cause the bankers considerable financial loss.

THE MILES STORY.

The General's Story of His Victory.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.

The official report of General Miles to General Sherman regarding his recent operations with the Bannock Indians disproves the story that he had been surrounded, and states that on the 4th inst., he surprised the hostiles, with the result telegraphed from here Thursday night—11 Indians killed, 31 made prisoners, 200 ponies captured, and Captain Bennett, of the Fifth Infantry and two friendly Crows killed.

A Bismarck special says the story of Miles's massacre originated with the mail carriers as an explanation of the unnecessary delay of two days.

EASTERN NEWS.

THREATENED MASSACRE BY THE TURKS.

Gilmore and the Mormons Coming to the United States.

LONDON, Sept. 15.

The Mussulmans of the surrounding country threaten to make a descent on Erzeroum and plunder the Christians when the Russian troops leave that city. The Armenian Archbishop of Erzeroum has telegraphed to Mr. Layard and M. Fournier, the British and French Ambassadors at Constantinople, asking that steps be taken for the protection of the Christian population. The Greek memorandum, which was presented to the Italian Prime Minister on Thursday, points out that the Porte, by signing the Treaty of Berlin, solemnly recognized the principle of cession of territory.

EVADING THE QUESTION.

The evasive reply of the Porte, refusing to appoint delegates to settle the frontier question until the Powers answered its late note, is calculated to prejudice any understanding between the two governments. Greece consequently appeals to the Powers to exercise the right of mediation. It is stated, however, that Minister Layard has informed the British government that the Porte has shown its good intention to execute the Treaty of Berlin, as evidenced by its willingness to evacuate the fortresses. Hence England's unwillingness to join a collective remonstrance relative to the non-execution of the treaty. The mission of Moukhtar Pacha, who was sent to Crete to endeavor to pacify the island, has failed. The Cretans rejected all the proposals made by the Porte and refused to enter into any arrangements with Moukhtar Pacha looking to the establishment of reforms in the administration.

ITALY AND THE POPE.

The Pope has been slightly indisposed during the past two days, and the usual audiences have consequently been suspended; but yesterday His Holiness was better. A meeting will be held at Savona, Italy, today by members of the Peace Preservation Society and others, in commemoration of the Geneva arbitration.

RECOVERY OF EMPEROR WILLIAM.

The Emperor William left Gastein yesterday. His cure has surpassed all expectations. Prince Bismarck has started for Berlin.

GILMORE'S RETURN.

The Herald's correspondent at Bremen telegraphs that the steamer Mosel sailed from Bremerhaven on yesterday, with the members of Gilmore's Band on board. So popular had the band become that more than a shipload of musicians applied for membership during the tour of the band in Europe.

The Wyoming sailed from Liverpool yesterday with 600 Mormons from Germany, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

FOREIGN NEWS.

EMPEROR WILLIAM.

LONDON, Sept. 15.

The Post's Berlin dispatch says Emperor William is desirous of resuming the reins of government next month.

AMERICAN BARK BURNING.

DUNKIRK, Scotland, Sept. 15.

American bark Lavinia, which arrived here Aug. 27, from New York, took fire after discharging, and will be totally destroyed.

RETURN OF GILMORE'S BAND.

LONDON, Sept 15.

Gilmore's Band left Bremerhaven yesterday, on steamer Mosel, for New York.

A NEW TREATY.

ROME, Sept. 15.

The Fanfulla makes a sensational announcement that the basis of a new treaty between England and the Porte has been settled, giving England a protectorate over Egypt. The Fanfulla adds that France consents to the treaty and will take part in the management of the finances.

THE QUEEN OF THE GYPSIES.

Burial of Matilda Stanley at Dayton, O., Sunday.

DAYTON, Ohio., Sept. 15.

Matilda Stanley, known as the Gypsy Queen, and recognized as such by all tribes throughout the United States, was buried at Woodland Cemetery, in this city, today. She died in Vicksburg last winter, and the body was embalmed for final burial. Over 25,000 people were in attendance. Representatives of prominent gypsy families from all parts of the United States and Canada have been assembling in the city for the occasion, and the funeral procession was a mile in length. The ceremony was conducted by the minister of the United Brethren Church, and did not differ from a Christian funeral. At the close, the children of the Queen threw themselves on the grave and filled the air with lamentations. Dayton has been for some time the headquarters of the gypsies in this country, and the King, the husband of the Queen, lives near the city on a large tract of grounds.

PERSONALS.

......Ilma de Murska is in New York and will give her first concert on the 29th instant.

......Mrs. Sarah A. Sawyer, wife of Charles W. Sawyer, a co-laborer with Moody, died in Brooklyn, Friday, aged thirty.

......Alden B. Stockwell, formerly president of the Pacific Mail steamship company, has received his discharge from bankruptcy.

......General Sheridan officially advises the War Department that there is not a word of truth in the alleged massacre of Colonel Miles's party.

......Miss Maria Seymour, the daughter of ex-Chief Justice Seymour of Connecticut, died at Litchfield, Conn., last Wednesday, after a lingering illness.

......Gen. Burnside will attend the reunion of the 35th Regiment at Newburyport tomorrow, the anniversary of the battle of Antietam. The 35th served under General Burnside in the Old Ninth Corps.

......President Hayes said in Chicago, Friday, that the pains of specie resumption were over and that the country should look to resumption for a cessation of the hard times and let the currency alone.

......The Custom House officers refused to pass Miss Kelloggs trunks on the day of her arrival, and they were sent to examining stores and the contents examined. The value of the dress was stated in the Custom House papers as $1,000, and she would have to pay a duty of $600 had she not got the trunks through free by producing what is called a "professional oath," that is to say, an affidavit that the contents of the trunks were to be used by her in her profession.

......The private drawing room car in which Wm. H. Vanderbilt makes his journeys is very superb and is probably the finest vehicle of the kind in the world. The trucks are mounted on spoked paper wheels, with exceptionally fine journals. The outside is painted a light orange color. On the side are four scenes, paneled in oil colors, one representing the Grand Central Depot, another depicting the falls of Niagara, another the great Fourth Avenue Tunnel, and the other the massive river bridge between Greenbush and Albany. The upholstery and furniture are regal in style, and made of the most costly material. In the rear is a covered platform, with large windows on each side. Fifty miles an hour is the rate at which this monarch of the rail travels over his own roads.

ON CONEY ISLAND.

Before us lies the broad Atlantic, tumbling in in all its splendor of transparent green breakers tipped with foam and dappled with every size and variety of sail. To the right, low on the horizon, lie the purple banks of Neversink hills, the atmosphere streaked and darkened with the waving cloud pennons of many streamers running through the Narrows. Straight in front nothing stands between us and Europe. Up and down the shore the eye ranges over an unbroken stretch of five or six miles of beach, which, thus foreshortened, seems one continuous village of cheerful hostelries. These, one and all, from the gigantic caravansary which can shelter a thousand guests, down to the shed which would be crowded with a dozen, are built and conducted by their proprietors with just three definite, humanitarian objects—to ablute the exterior of their fellow-man, to nourish his interior, and to cheer his nervous system with amusements light and varied. Behind us lies Cable's—a long two-storied building, with immense airy dining-rooms and verandas, and a few lodging-rooms above. Westward is an immense clapboarded barn, the "Atlantic Garden," with countless tables for hungry and thirsty humanity, and off in one corner an aquarium. Further west an immense building in glass and iron is going up, picked up bodily at the Philadelphia Exhibition, and set down here, hotel above and railway station below—the terminus of one of the many dummy roads which will soon make the island rather more accessible from the lower part of the city than Central Park. In front of this main group of buildings is a great pine platform for promenaders, with a music kiosk in the centre. Off at one side a camera-obscura in a neat little building invites the visitor to its pleasant ten cents' worth of illusion. Still nearer the beach we cross the terminus of the Corso—a broad, level, asphalt road reaching to Brooklyn, and furnishing a magnificent drive from the city. And in and around and among these things lies the most bewildering complex of other buildings, all harmoniously tending to the same result of refreshment or fun. There are great restaurants with covered roofs fitted up as dancing floors; there are vast square inclosures, looking externally like rural jails or frontier stockades, but internally alive with the hasty feet of numberless bathers wet or dry; there are sheds strewn with brush-wood, and stands and counters innumerable, from which lager gurgles in one unceasing flow, and the smoking clam goes bravely to its doom behind a serried rampart of vinegar cruets and catsup bottles. At countless "ranges" red-faced voluble armorers continually charge the innocuous air-gun, with which guileless youths and smiling maidens aim at little round targets, or Aunt Sallies with pipes stuck around their heads, or graceful vivandieres, that reward the successful marksman with an approving rub-a-dub from their snare-drums. As we wander down the beach a plantive individual courteously invites us to step into his weighing chair, and another as blandly urges us to test the strength of our lungs on his blowing machine. On the tavern porch back of us an acrobat has just cleared a space of loungers, on which he is tying himself in double bow-knots, at the imminent risk of toppling over on the group of wide-eyed little boys who close in around him in awe-struck delight. At the next tavern a cluster of darkies are hard at it with bones and banjo, showing their ivories and flinging themselves into every variety of ecstatic grotesqueness in the melodic frenzy of "Camp-town Races."

Stop and look up the beach. Did you ever see so much high light and motion in a picture before? The light, shining white pine buildings, glittering windows, seafoam, dazzling sand, and flying spray; the motion, the restless dash of the breakers, the drift of silvery fleecy clouds, the fluttering of countless flags, and lines charged with drying clothes, and the restless crowd, which comes pouring in from the various stations and surging along the beach like an angry procession of ants on a war expedition.—[Charles Carroll, in Harper's Magazine for October.

NEATNESS IN FARMING.

Nothing gives evidence of thrift and enterprise in farming better than keeping everything in order. There are times when even the most painstaking men are compelled to let things go somewhat at loose ends, but upon the first occasion of spare time and due diligence thereafter, the wonted appearance of things about the premises returns. At the cost of a little time and labor when required, the appearance of an untidy farm may be so improved as to add considerably to its value, and the price obtained in the event of the sale. The contrast between neat and slovenly kept farms represents more in a pecuniary point of view, very often, than is generally supposed. Take a farm which by its appearance shows clean culture, from which stumps and bushes have been removed, the building kept in repair, the fences and gates in order, the rubbish kept from the roadside and fence corners, the tools housed when not in use, and the stock exhibiting evidence of good care and attention, and in the event of its purchase it will bring relatively much more than one equally fertile, but kept in a slovenly way. Weedy fields, tumble-down fences, gates with broken hinges, buildings out of repair, implements scattered about the farm where they were used last, rubbish everywhere, and inferior-looking stock, take from a farm, naturally fertile, a good round sum in the event of sale.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE FEEBLE.

So long as the falling embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor!

The Newport Daily News and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon, Sundays excepted, at the News building, 18 Church street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning, and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, the latest markets, and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal. Terms $1 00 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the WHOLE YEAR is paid STRICTLY IN ADVANCE. These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra, and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty five changes a year. No gratuitous advertising for any object. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Newport Daily News.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1878.

5000 persons visited the Mechanics' Exhibition, in Boston, Saturday.

A coach was attacked by Wyoming bandits last Friday night, and in the fight which ensued one robber was killed and two wounded.

The great storm of last week was most disastrous to life and property. The rivers in Ohio and Virginia were higher than for twenty five years.

There were 687 deaths from yellow fever in Memphis last week, 42 in Holly Springs, 20 in Canton, 530 in New Orleans and 9 in Gallipolis. The reports are decidedly more hopeful. In Memphis there were but 90 deaths yesterday and a falling off in new cases. Forty-nine deaths occured in New Orleans, and 149 new cases were reported—a reduction of the previous day's record. The death-rate in various places is materially lessened.

The editor of the Memphis Appeal speaking of the negroes of Memphis says "all honor to them. They have acted by us nobly as policemen and soldiers, as well as nurses. They have responded to every call in proportion to their number quite as promptly as the whites. A few of them threatened trouble about food at one time, but were at the moment suppressed by a company of soldiers of their own color. The colored people of Memphis as a body deserve well of their white fellow citizens. We appreciate and are proud of them."

News from Fall River is to the effect that Stickney has not been arrested yet, his physicians certifying that he is not able to be moved and may not be for several days. His case is now entirely in the hands of the police, and for some reason the guard around the house is doubled. Marshal Brigham will proceed to the house today, serve a warrant and place a guard inside to remain until the prisoner is well enough to be moved. It is reported that a trunk was seized on the way to the New York boat which was believed to contain the books of Castner, Stickney, and Wellington.

Already the Cubans are agitating for the abolition of slavery, and they will probably elect delegates to the Spanish Cortes who will advocate the immediate manumission of all persons held in bondage, without compensation to the owners. To pay the proprietors of slaves is out of the question, and, this being the case, the matter is likely to take a practical turn in the Spanish Legislature. It may seem hard to take the slaves from their masters without compensation, but it is perfectly fair, because no man has a right to property in humanity. The offense is heinous, and the pecuniary loss from abolition is but a just punishment of the misdemeanor.

When we hear all that is said against Ben Butler in Massachusetts, it is a matter of surprise that he has so many friends and sympathisers where he is best known. Take, for illustration, his popularity in Boston where he always receives a warm support. In view of the past it is not remarkable that he has carried the Democratic State Convention. Butler always carries the delegates in Boston, no matter what party he applies to. He carried the Republican delegates two years ago; he carried the National delegates lately; now he bags the Democratic delegates, and the Republicans had better guard their outposts well, or he will run away with their primary machine before they know it. That cultured Boston should go into ecstacies over Kearney and always bow down to Butler is not creditable. Either Butler is a better man than has been represented or Boston is not such a model city as has been claimed for her.

There are two sides to the Chinese question. If we rightly manage the case China is likely to open to us a rich field for future operations. But if we allow such men as Kearney to maltreat those who come from the Flowery kingdom and consent to forbid emigration to our shores we shall miss a great opportunity. One of the consular reports sets forth that one eighth of the clothing worn by the Chinese is imported, so that millions of the inhabitants of that country apparel themselves in their own rude garments of silk or paper. Here is a prospective market for our cotton and woolen goods that would put us to our greatest activity to supply. It should be opened up as rapidly as possible, for the opinion is unanimous that our calicoes and other print goods could be placed in China at such rates as to guarantee their replacing the costly manufactures of the natives, and the superiority of our goods, as well as friendly feeling existing between the Chinese and the Americans, would at once give us a monopoly of the trade.

It is difficult to tell whether the Republican or Democratic party is most thoroughly tinctured with the Greenback theories. In two of the congressional districts in Philadelphia the Republicans have adopted and endorsed the candidates of the Nationals, which is about an even match for Maine where the Democrats did about the same thing. There is, in fact, a pretty thorough breaking up of both the old parties, and a reorganization on the financial question. The new party has not yet had an opportunity to show its strength, except in a few instances, and its success in those cases has surpassed all expectations. It was doubtless the "news from Maine" that caused Secretary Sherman to rescind the resumption order which by the help of silver he felt able to execute. Secretary Sherman is a wiley politician and likes to go with the current rather than against it. And, say what we will, the current is everywhere setting in favor of paper money as issued by the government rather than by the banks. This backing down by Sherman is a significant sign of what is considered public opinion, at Washington, and will help greenbackers immensely. The secretary should have stuck to his text.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Boston Post says the one lady delegate in the late Greenback Convention was a firm believer in paper patterns, and would fain introduce them into politics.

The Boston Evening Journal says it cost but twenty-two cents a barrel to bring flour from Chicago to Boston.—Why, then, should flour be sold so dear in New England? It can be purchased at $4 to $5 per barrel in Western cities, and here it is retailed from $7 to $9,50.

We know there was something wrong about this summer time which is just closing. We couldn't tell just where the deficiency was, whether in the weather, or whether in the watering place correspondence which so many people buy the papers for, but Thursday we learned. The Traveller printed a letter about Nancy Luce of Martha's Vineyard and her chickens, and we were satisfied. It was the one thing, always expected, which the summer of 1878 had not brought us.—[Boston Herald.

TEMPERANCE MEETING AT FABYAN'S.

The opening exercises of the New England reform club association were held at the Fabyan House, N. H., Gov. Prescot delivered an address of welcome, congratulating temperance men on the growth of sentiment among all classes in favor of temperance, and giving much valuable advice as to the best course to pursue. J. K. Osgood, William H. Blanchard and Maj. E. W. Farr of Littleton, republican candidates for Congress, also delivered addresses, urging every one to stand by temperance principles under all circumstances, and impressing the importance of never drinking the first drop. The attendance is not large yet, but numbers are arriving on every train. Gov. Van Zandt and Gen. Burnside of Rhode Island address the meeting this evening.

BARGAINS.

It would be unjust to a very large number of women to say that all the sex were bad economists, but it is true, nevertheless, that a great proportion of it is. Not, be it explained, in the matters pertaining to the housekeeping, for it is wonderful what make-shifts they will use in order to make the weekly allowance go as far as possible; but in matter of shopping there are several lessons for them to learn, which experience so far has failed to make them recollect, and they go on doing the same foolish things, utterly ignoring the past.

The mania for buying things cheap has grown into a perfect "craze," and its effect is most demoralizing. Having found they can buy things at a reduced rate, the demand begins for lower prices and still greater reduction, and the result is that they have their way as to price, but the seller makes his loss good by giving an inferior article. The retail merchants can't afford to lose money; its hard enough to get it at the best; so they order goods that they can sell at low rates. This encourages the manufacture of an inferior quality of goods, which, while to all outward appearance they are the same, are made less substantially than the ones that sold for a little more a yard, and will not stand the test of wear. The satisfaction of saving a small sum upon a dress, a suit of clothes, or any article of household furniture, is more than counterbalanced by the dissatisfaction of finding that the purchase is wearing out before the gloss of newness ought to have been off it.

The best way to do in purchasing anything is to go to a reliable house, where you can trust the salesmen and know they are telling you the absolute fact about the goods you inquire for, and then purchase a standard article, although you may have to pay a little more for it. It is the truest economy, for it will pay you for purchasing, and you will save the extra money which you have spent in the wear, and the satisfaction which you will get out of it. This doesn't mean extravagance; by no means. It means simply the putting out of a little more money at first to save paying a larger amount by and by.

A personal friend of Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines writes to refute the recent newspaper story that a new lion has stepped across her path in the shape of English claimants to her New Orleans property. "Although the plucky little woman is now past 70," writes our correspondent, "she has no occasion for spectacles, and there is not one silver thread among the gold of her hair. She has conquered America, and should necessity demand, who can doubt that she would whip the British. That she will do great good with her wealth when she once gets it into tangible form, I am sure. She longs to ameliorate the condition of her sex, and assist in elevating them to a higher sphere of life and effort. She is the woman of work and strife against wrong. Her kindness of heart is unequalled. Why! the northeast corner of Mrs. Gaines's heart is large enough to hold Stewart's hotel, and it wouldn't fall through, either."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Capt. Henry Castoff is very ill.

—The hotels are doing a fair amount of business.

—Mr. J. P. Newell, the artist, sailed on Saturday for Europe.

—The steamer Day Star brought 225 excursionists to Newport yesterday.

—Alderman Sherman is adding an upper story to his residence on Spring street.

—The Kinsley Express Company forwards the supplies for the South from 12 Travers Block free of expense.

—Mrs. Eliza Marshall was seriously injured on Sunday by falling down stairs at her residence on Pelham street.

—Several candidates from the Union Church, Portsmouth, were baptized at the third beach yesterday afternoon.

—Maggie Maginnis is dead and her name will appear in our police record no more. She recently returned from the State Farm.

—Early Sunday morning fire alarm box 12 was found open by Officer Hazard. Evidently somebody had been tampering with it.

—A boy, about eight years old, son of Mr. McLoughlin, residing on Long wharf, died very suddenly yesterday. He was in his usual health on Saturday.

—Union Lodge, K. of H., No. 608, voted last Tuesday evening to send $20 to their brethren in the yellow fever districts. It was forwarded the following day.

—Patrick O'Hare, in the employ of Mr. P. Lorillard was severely injured Saturday by a run away horse attached to a road roller. Two of his ribs were broken and is thought that he is otherwise injured. He is from Boston.

—Miss Mattie, a six-year-old daughter of Dr. Wm. H. Cotton, had a pleasant birthday party on Saturday. One of the agreeable features was a drive in Stewart's drag with about twenty little friends.

—Those British sailors who bought canes made in this city, at twenty-five cents apiece, and afterwards sold them to the visitors on the ships for one dollar apiece, professing to have brought them from the West Indies, were almost as shrewd as Yankees.

—An attempt was made Saturday night to enter the summer residence of Miss E. O. Gibbes on Buena Vista street. Two men were seen by some of the servants in season to prevent them from getting a window open.

—$163.85 was taken in the Central Baptist Church, $65 in the First Methodist Church, and $30 in Touro Chapel, yesterday, for the sufferers from yellow fever. The collection forwarded from Trinity Church last week amounted in all to $765.

—We learn that Mayor Bedlow will appear in the entertainment to be given by the Bellevue Dramatic Club on Thursday evening next. The proceeds are for the benefit of Redwood Library, and this fact will be an additional inducement to attend.

—The revenue cutter, Samuel Dexter, Capt. Baker, rendered timely assistance yesterday afternoon to the coal-laden schooner Ann Eliza of this port. She was found in distress this side of Point Judith, having carried away her foremast head. The cutter took charge of her and brought her to this port for repairs.

—The Hercules Steam Fire Engine No 7 was taken to the Old Colony repair shops. While out for practice on Saturday her steam dome, owing to its being overheated, was injured so that the water went into the fire. It is thought that it will be repaired in time to be taken to Fall River on Thursday.

—A most successful season at Prof. Gebhard's swimming school closed on Saturday. Medals for diving and high jumping were given to two young ladies and to twelve young gentleman, and for perfect front stroke and back swimming, distance and endurance, medals were given to ten ladies and four lads. Prof. Gebhard will open a school for instruction in swimming on Fifth avenue, New York, this winter.

—It is believed that a clew has been found to the woman murdered in Boston last week. A girl named Mary Caffey, at present residing with some relatives in this city, thinks, judging from the published description of the unfortunate woman, that it is her mother, Catherine Caffey, who at one time was employed at the Perry House. She promised to meet her daughter here on the 10th inst., after filling an engagement at one of the hotels at the Isle of Shoals. Failing to keep her word and other circumstances connected with the case her friends here believe that the murdered woman was Mrs. Caffey. City Marshal Read has communicated with the Boston Police Department, and has acquainted them with the facts in his possession, and the mystery which shrouds the sad affair may now be cleared up.

FIVE MILLION DELIGHTED PEOPLE.—No play has received such a large patronage or such high endorsements by both the press and people as D'Enery's master work, The Two Orphans, which it is estimated has been played in this country to over 5,000,000 people since its first production at Union Square Theatre, New York. Last season it drew out one of the largest audiences in this city, both in numbers and money, the receipts for the evening being nearly six hundred dollars. Tomorrow evening Manager Palmer with his superb company will produce the play at the Opera House. Popular prices of admission prevail this season—25, 50 and 75 cents. See advertisement.

Mrs. Woolson's, lecture which is to be given in Touro Chapel on Wednesday, takes us from San Francisco, by the way of the Big Trees, and, after a four-days' journey of the most remarkable character, finally sets us down at the door of the little hotel in the 'Beautiful Valley' in the heart of the Sierras. No words can do justice to her poetical description of the Big Trees she visited on her way, or to the marvellous word-painting which pictures to the mind's eye the wonders of Yosemite—absolutely the grandest of all the grand sights in the known world. The lecture throughout is a fine illustration of the power of words—a power greater even than the artist's pencil.

SUPREME COURT.

FIRST DAY.

The Supreme Court within and for the County of Newport, met today for holding the September term thereof.

Present Chief Justice Durfee and J. J. Potter and Matteson.

The court was opened at ten o'clock and the calling of the docket was at once proceeded with.

There is a large civil docket on which are several cases of importance to be heard both to the court and for trial to the jury, and if parties are in any state of readiness for business, there will be, at least, a fortnight session.

The criminal docket is very small, unusually so for this time of year. The labor of the Grand Jury tomorrow will be not arduous, not more than three complaints being probably ready for their consideration.

The following Jury cases were continued: John H. Williams vs. Marine Guano and Oil Company; City of Newport vs. Wm. G. Peckham; John D. Northam vs. Henry L. Davis; Isaac Howland vs. Geo. F. S. White; Charles F. Seabury vs. Warren Seabury; Richard Lawton vs. Wm. E. Van Reed; Joseph Bradford vs. Wm. J. Swinburne; Richard Lawton, appellant vs. F. B. Garnett; Henry Easton vs. E. Truman Peckham, defendant in bankruptcy; Swinburne, Peckham & Co., vs. Same, same entry; Henry W. Tripp vs. Daniel D. Palmer, defendant in bankruptcy; Lewis P. Mead and wife vs. Probate Court of Tiverton.

The following jury cases were entered discontinued:—

James J. Essex vs. Joseph M. Lyon, appellant; Alexander Hodgdon vs. David Babcock, appellant; David J. Gould vs. William O. Cozzens & Co.; Sarah H. G. Cozzens vs. Henry W. Cozzens, et al; John Fadden vs. Hiram Murray; George Howland vs. Schooner Mozart and owners.

The following jury cases were entered settled:—

Clarissa Brown vs. Cyrenus Bliss; Silas N. Littlefield vs. Edward O. Allen; Benjamin Northup vs. Joseph E. Macomber; George Engs vs. Daniel Brown.

The following cases brought on exceptions were disposed of as follows:—

Fall River Union Bank vs. Samuel W. Sanford, discontinued; David B. Chase vs. Frank Reagan, continued.

The following ruled cases were continued: Albert Cottrell vs. William T. Reid; John D. Northam vs. Charles T. Brooks; Reuben Hart vs. Otis L. Simmons was recommitted to referees.

The following equity cases were disposed of as follows:—

James J. Essex and wife vs. Joseph M. Lyon, dismissed; Albert H. Hayward vs. Charles S. Peckham and others, continued; Benj. Bryer. and others vs. Geo. Oakley and wife and others, continued; Henry A. Clark vs. City of Newport and others, dismissed; Edward W. Howland vs. Isaac W. Howland, continued; George D. Stibbard vs. Wm. H. Flagg, discontinued; Robert L. Fowler and others vs. Savings' Bank of Newport and others, dismissed.

After the call of the docket, leaving many cases marked for trial, the court were engaged in hearing counsel in the celebrated and long pending cases in equity of Isaac P. Hazard and others vs. Thomas C. Durant and others. These arguments and the hearing of other motions and points by the court will occupy the day.

Tomorrow morning the jurors will come in and the juries be empannelled, and the court will be fairly under way for the session.

AID FOR THE SOUTH.

The receipt is gratefully acknowledged, with thanks, of the following contributions sent to the ladies committee, 12 Travers Block:—

Mrs. Frank Chickering, 6 shirts.
W. P. Congdon, 25 pears, sold at auction by Mr. Burlingham in front of the postoffice, $20.35.
H. E. Turner, Jr., 20 yards flannel and 1 dozen men's undershirts.
Collected by Freddie and Annie, $10.16.
Mrs. Edward Cooper, 3 boxes biscuits.
Mr. Joseph Bradford, bundle of clothing.
Cash $5.
Mrs. Ticknor, $33.
Mrs. Richard M. Hunt, 5 men's undershirts, 4 dozen pairs stockings.
C. Sherman, 1 barrel biscuits 1 box groceries.
Mrs. Dr. King, 1 bundle of clothing.
Lydia Pendergast, box groceries.
Mrs. G. M. Miller, " "
Mrs. S. O. Hoffman " "
Mrs. Stout, basket champagne.

The Russian gunboats ought to beat all others for sailing, because, besides sails and steam, they have a large lot of Finns.

AID FOR THE YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS.

A project is on foot which if successfully carried out, and there is little doubt on that point, will be the means of gathering quite a little sum for the fever stricken cities, and at the same time give the lovers of sports an opportunity to witness some good racing among our local horses.

It is proposed on next Monday and Tuesday to have a series of races, both trotting, running and pacing, to take place either on the beach or on some suitable road near the city. A committee is forming to carry out the details, and the entries of horses already indicate that the races will be successful. Similar affairs have taken place in aid of the same object in several large cities and have been the means of raising quite an amount for the sufferers.

Tickets will be for sale so that those who do not themselves care to witness the racing can contribute their mite and give others the benefit of the sport. Invitation is extended to all those who have horses, either trotters, runners or pacers, who are desirous of aiding the charitable object to make an entry of same with the Committee. They will then be arranged in their proper classes, and the different races announced on the grounds. The committee will be announced tomorrow.

COM.

OUR BOARD OF HEALTH AGAIN.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

Your correspondent in today's issue seems to have given a very plausible reason why our Board of Aldermen were not invited to partake of the festivities on board the Bellerophon, when he said:—"Perhaps these Englishmen, whose sense of smell is generally very acute, found out that the same body of city officials were also a Newport Board of Health." That "our Board of Health must be of a class not to be invited to a clean ship like the Bellerophon."

If "by their works ye shall know them," what must we and our English friends think of our so-called Board of Health? Can it be possible that they are aware of the stench which is so apparent in certain portions of our city? We almost feel a conviction that we have no Board of Health; for when does it show that it is doing its duty? If we really have a Board of Health should it not be indicted for dereliction of duty? Is it right that some of our streets should be watered with water drawn from near the exit of one of our large city sewers? Is the Board not neglecting its duty in not abating the stench and preventing the seeds of death arising from the fresh (?) water pond near the depot? It is simply astonishing that intelligent men can allow so many radical defects in the sanitary condition of our city to continue, when they have full power, or claim they have, to abolish any and everything detrimental to the health of the city.

An article in Friday's N. Y. Herald opens to the world the sanitary condition of Newport. Can we afford to have these reports spread about? Shall we not compell our City Fathers to give us a well organised Board of Health?

The Mercury of today says that Grenada "was considered one of the most healthy towns in Mississippi," and yet what is it today? Its sanitary condition was bad; the seed of contagion was sown there, defective drainage gave it good feeding ground, and what do we see as a result.

Newport, also, is acknowledged by all to be a healthy city. "The hygenic arrangements of Newport city are simply nil." (see Hygeine of America, page 240). What would be the result if the seed of any contagion were sown here, when we see the offensive sewer water of our harbor sprinkled over our streets, and when we see how totally neglectful the present so called Board of Health is of the sanitary condition of the city?

Our mayor in his last message speaks of our harbor as a "city cesspool," and yet the Board of Health (?) have been allowing this "cesspool" water to be sprinkled on our streets.

How long must the welfare of our city be imperiled by the negligence of the so-called Board of Health?

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

THE CAMEL.

[By Charles Dudley Warner.]

No human royal family dare be uglier than the camel. He is a mass of bones, faded tufts, humps, lumps, splay-joints, and callosites. His tail is a ridiculous wisp, and a failure as an ornament or fly-brush. His feet are simply big sponges. For skin covering he has patches of old buffalo robes, faded, and with the hair worn off. His voice is more agreeable than his appearance. With a reputation for patience, he is snappish and vindictive. His endurance is overrated; that is to say, he dies like a sheep, if he is not well fed. His gait racks muscles like the ague. And yet this ungainly creature carries his head in the air and regards the world out of his great brown eyes with disdain. The very poise of his head says: "I have come out of the dim past; the deluge did not touch me; I helped Shoo-foo build the great pyramid; I know Egypt when it hadn't an obelisk nor a temple. There are three of us: the date-palm, the pyramid and myself. Everything else is modern. Go to!"

The growth of Kansas does not seem to be checked by any of the reverses that have come to other parts of the country. In 1855 the census showed a population of but 8610 in 1860 of 107,206, and in 1870 of 364,480. At the present time the population is estimated to be at least 650,000. Thus the increase has been 30,000 a year since the first census was taken. The fertility of the state and its adaptability for the purposes of grazing make its future very promising.

Lucy H. Hooper says: "Christine Nilsson, in a plain gray costume and a hat shaded with gay plumes, claims more than a passing glance—more for the sake of the past, however, than for that of the present, for her beauty, once so real and so winning, is sadly faded, and the passage of years has accentuated the marked points in her countenance, such as the high cheek-bones and the general hardness of outline. Yet the blue eyes and flashing teeth are attractive as of old. I hear that her voice has suffered as has her beauty, having lost its exquisite and subtle sweetness, that diamond-like quality that was its greatest charm. From that, or for some unexplained cause, the glory of the great prima donna's career is waning, and she does not draw as once she did. Yet she has abated note jot of her pretensions, and consequently, the managers fight shy of her, as witness her non-engagement in London last season. Yet she is but little over 30, having barely reached the age at which the powers of a great singer should be at their prime."

The Emma mine, for recommending which General Robert C. Schenck, while minister to England, was so roundly abused, proves to be one of the richest mines of the world. The last ten tons of ore taken out of the Emma mine yielded $10,000, $1000 to the ton. The silver is found in great chambers, not in fissures, as in Colorado. It is carbonate of silver. A former superintendent of the mine says: "In all my experience there has scarcely been an instance like this, where a valued citizen has been slandered so unjustly and so cruelly wronged."—[Philadelphia Press.

A Complete Fertilizer.

The success of the Complete Fertilizer, made up on the basis of wood ashes, has been such as to call for the preparation of a much larger quantity for present use. One farmer who had half a ton last spring, now orders ten tons for grass and fall sowing. Others are also calling for it in larger quantities and I shall have a supply ready for delivery on or before September first. It is especially adapted to pasture and grass, and now is the best time to sow it for next season's crop. None of the ingredients are wasted and the bone, potash, etc., will be in soluble condition for the desired effects early next spring.

The fertilizing ingredients in this preparation are obtained at less price than in the best leached ashes at 15 cents a bushel, and the mechanical action on the soil is equally good.

Farmers or Gardeners who desire further particulars of its composition, can obtain the desired information by sending for a circular. It is sold mixed at less than the retail price of the several ingredients, and every article used in making it up is subjected to analysis to determine its purity. Price $40 a ton.

THE GRAPE.

See the azure-glinted grape,
 Grateful grape—
What a world of collcosity
The children would escape
If by any art of learning
And by any mode of turning
 They could learn
 How to turn
From the grape,
 As it dangles on the vine
 With its entrails full of wine
There's detected in its shape
 All the horrors
 And the sorrors
That beside the hearse and crape.
 Yet we grapple with the grape,
 And we grope through all the groupings
Of the gripings of the scrape—
 Oh, the grape, grape, grape,
 Grape, grape, grape,
Oh, the group of grappling, gripings of the grape.

PERMANENT OFFICE,

No. 5 Main Street, Fall River, Mass.

The undersigned well-known Oculist-Optician, J. ROSENBUSH, would respectfully inform the citizens and visitors of Newport and vicinity that he has opened his office in BUTLER BLOCK, BELLEVUE AVENUE, for the season, and would cordially invite all suffering from defective sight, either from old age or other infirmities, to favor him with an early call. In thanking for the very liberal patronage enjoyed last season, he can assure all that he will spare no pains to merit a continuation of the same. Being so well known in this community, he thinks it unnecessary to publish the hundreds of testimonials in his hands, which, however, will be gladly shown at his office.

Very Respectfully,

J. ROSENBUSH.

IS YOUR HOUSE HEATED

WITH FURNACES?

IF SO,

HAVE YOUR FURNACE EXAMINED

AND

Put in Thorough Order

During the Present Month.

WHY?

1st.—Because it will employ the mechanics at a season when the dealers have but little for their workmen to do.

2d.—Your work will be better done now than at a season when the dealers are all driven with work, and many times obliged to have their work done evenings, at an extra expense to both the dealers and their customers.

3d.—It is much better for your furnace, as it is now standing idle, rusting and corroding, and if thoroughly examined, cleaned out, put up, and a little fire built in it at once, it will absorb the dampness, stop its rusting, and in the fall your furnace will be ready for use when wanted.

We have workmen who thoroughly understand furnace work, and who are now engaged in examining and putting furnaces in order.

Our Work and Our Prices Guaranteed to be Perfectly Satisfactory.

YOUR FURNACE WORK SOLICITED.
